1 John 4:1-3; 7-8

We are once again reminded that the world that is unseen leaves a recognizable imprint on the world that is seen: false spirits are known by their confession, and believers are known by their love.

Endurers

1 John 4:4-6

4 You are from God, little children, and have overcome them; because greater is He who is in you than he who is in the world.

5 They are from the world; therefore they speak as from the world, and the world listens to them.

6 We are from God; he who knows God listens to us; he who is not from God does not listen to us. By this we know the spirit of truth and the spirit of error.

We may better understand the jealous guardianship that John and the other apostles claim with respect to the truth when we remember that they exercised it in service to the message that God, in His incomparable love, gave His Son so that we might live.
